President's Report

Hi spotted followers,

This last month has flown along and its time to put another blurb in the digest.

The AGM was held last month and there was little change in the management and committee. So yours truly is still the President.

This year is going to be a biggy as it is our National year, we have got so many irons in the fire with raffles starting, organising the trophies, ribbons and dinner and so on. I have heard from Dally exhibitors from as far away as Darwin that will be attending our National and also will be coming to our Dally dinner, this is great news. I just hope they bring enough money and room for the things they are bound to win.....at our famous auction.

There is a wine raffle that everyone should be receiving tickets for as well as an esky with goodies in it for those that don't drink...(what am I saying, I made the first donation of a six pack of Bourbon....that went into the esky.)

If you can spare some time please let the committee know as we would love to be able to put your spare time to valuable use. What a great time for the US dollar to go up especially when we have to pay for air flights for the Judge, this may save us a shekel or two.

We will be holding monthly meetings up until the National so if you can spare some time it would be great to see you there.

Once again congrats to the new committee and onwards and upwards.

Spot Ya later

Brett Johns

President

For all of us animal lovers out there... thought you would enjoy this one.

Dachshund mom is fostering this guy for another mom who couldn't take care of him. He had his eyes closed, but now they are open. He is just a little bigger than her other pups. She loves this little guy more than the other puppies and she is nursing him back to health. He is the cleanest "puppy" ever because she licks him all the time.

Secretary's Report

Hi folks,

Firstly, Sorry the newsletter is so late, it's not Julie's fault.....it's mine, so sorry.

It was great to see new faces at our AGM / General M in February, for all who were there it was rather epic but a lot was achieved. There will be a National meeting on the 28th March at 7pm (meeting room 3, Durack) for those interested; we would love to see you.

A special welcome to all our new members approved at our February General Meeting.

Interstate member - Margaret van de Weg - Retma Dalmatians

Associate members - Tony Blinco with Barkley, Nick & Angela Marsden with Chip, Susan Holmes with Jesse, Linda Furlong with Betty, Chloe Ruhle with Milo, Fran Davies-Graham with Fudge and Marion Collier with Leo.

Enjoy,

Megan

A man and his dog were walking along a road. The man was enjoying the scenery, when it suddenly occurred to him that he was dead. He remembered dying, and that the dog walking beside him had been dead for years. He wondered where the road was leading them. After a while, they came to a high, white stone wall along one side of the road. It looked like fine marble. At the top of a long hill, it was broken by a tall arch that glowed in the sunlight. When he was standing before it he saw a magnificent gate in the arch that looked like mother-of-pearl, and the street that led to the gate looked like pure gold. He and the dog walked toward the gate, and as he got closer, he saw a man at a desk to one side.

When he was close enough, he called out, 'Excuse me, where are we?'
 'This is Heaven, sir,' the man answered.
 'Wow! Would you happen to have some water?' the man asked.
 'Of course, sir. Come right in, and I'll have some ice water brought right up.'
 The man gestured, and the gate began to open.
 'Can my friend,' gesturing toward his dog, 'come in, too?' the traveler asked.
 'I'm sorry, sir, but we don't accept pets.'
 The man thought a moment and then turned back toward the road and continued the way he had been going with his dog.
 After another long walk, and at the top of another long hill, he came to a dirt road leading through a farm gate that looked as if it had never been closed. There was no fence. As he approached the gate, he saw a man inside, leaning against a tree and reading a book.
 'Excuse me!' he called to the man. 'Do you have any water?'
 'Yeah, sure, there's a pump over there, come on in.'
 'How about my friend here?' the traveler gestured to the dog.
 'There should be a bowl by the pump.'
 They went through the gate, and sure enough, there was an old-fashioned hand pump with a bowl beside it.
 The traveler filled the water bowl and took a long drink himself, then he gave some to the dog. When they were full, he and the dog walked back toward the man who was standing by the tree.
 'What do you call this place?' the traveler asked.
 'This is Heaven,' he answered.

'Well, that's confusing,' the traveler said. 'The man down the road said that was Heaven, too.'

'Oh, you mean the place with the gold street and pearly gates? Nope. That's hell.'

'Doesn't it make you mad for them to use your name like that?'

'No, we're just happy that they screen out the folks who would leave their best friends behind.'

Editor's Spot

The City Point Score got off to a great start with two new puppies in the ring. So nice to see pups getting ready for the National. I was off at my Nieces wedding in Byron Bay that day so couldn't enter, but I will have my own two pups in from April.

Don't forget all the fund raisers for the National. Wine orders are now being taken, raffle tickets are available for a bumper cooler and donations for our trophy table are always welcome.

Don't forget the early entry date for the National - 14 April - this will give time for production of the photographic catalogue, which will make a fabulous memento of the day.

For those still not rejoined this year, please get your membership renewals in or I will have to stop sending you the Dally Digest!

Welcome to all our new members this year!

Till next month
