Secretary's Report

Hi all,

It has been a busy couple of months for me since the last meeting, what with having a blast showing the spots....or watching others showing theirs, it might have been busy, but none the less, a lot of fun!

Congratulations to the Brewen, Lykatyga and Paceaway Kennels for the safe arrival of their litters, and congratulations also to Brett and Wendy for titling their young boy 'Scout'.

It was wonderful to hear of Fran and Brian's lovely boy 'Konner' go Best in Show at the Toowoomba Royal this year. What a buzz for them and of course, great to have our wonderful dogs in the spot-light again! Congratulations guys!

It is now all systems go getting ready for the Championship show in June.

Cheers

Megan

Jasmine

In 2003, police in Warwickshire, England, opened a garden shed and found a whimpering, cowering dog. It had been locked in the shed and abandoned. It was dirty and malnourished, and had clearly been abused.

In an act of kindness, the police took the dog, which was a Greyhound female, to the nearby Nuneaton Warwickshire Wildlife Sanctuary, run by a man named Geoff Grewcock and known as a willing haven for Animals abandoned, orphaned or otherwise in need. Geoff and the other sanctuary staff went to work with two aims to restore the dog to full health, and to win her trust. It took several weeks, but eventually both goals were achieved.

They named her Jasmine, and they started to think about finding her an adoptive home.

But Jasmine had other ideas. No-one remembers now how it began, but she started welcoming all Animal arrivals at the sanctuary. It wouldn't matter if it was a puppy, a fox cub, a rabbit or, any other lost or hurting Animal, Jasmine would peer into the box or cage and, where possible, deliver a welcoming lick.

Geoff relates one of the early incidents. "We had two puppies that had been abandoned by a nearby railway line. One was a Lakeland Terrier cross and another was a Jack Russell Doberman cross. They were tiny when they arrived at the centre and Jasmine approached them and grabbed one by the scruff of the neck in her mouth and put him on the settee. Then she fetched the other one and sat down with them, cuddling them."

"But she is like that with all of our animals, even the rabbits. She takes all the stress out of them and it helps them to not only feel close to her but to settle into their new surroundings."

"She has done the same with the fox and badger cubs, she licks the rabbits and guinea pigs and even lets the birds perch on the bridge of her nose."

Jasmine, the timid, abused, deserted waif, became the animal sanctuary's resident surrogate mother, a role for which she might have been born. The list of orphaned and abandoned youngsters she has cared for comprises five fox cubs, four badger cubs, 15 chicks, eight guinea pigs, two stray puppies and 15 rabbits.

And one roe deer fawn. Tiny Bramble, 11 weeks old, was found semi-conscious in a field. Upon arrival at the sanctuary, Jasmine cuddled up to her to keep her warm, and then went into the full foster mum role. Jasmine the greyhound showers Bramble the Roe deer with affection and makes sure nothing is matted.

"They are inseparable," says Geoff "Bramble walks between her legs and they keep kissing each other. They walk together round the sanctuary. It's a real treat to see them."

Jasmine will continue to care for Bramble until she is old enough to be returned to woodland life. When that happens, Jasmine will not be lonely. She will be too busy showering love and affection on the next Orphan or victim of abuse.

From left, Toby, a stray Lakeland dog; Bramble, orphaned Roe deer; Buster, a stray Jack Russell; a dumped rabbit; Sky, an injured barn owl; and Jasmine with a Mothers heart doing best what a caring Mother would do... Such is the order of God's Creation.

The following was found posted very low on a refrigerator door.

Dear Dogs and Cats: The dishes with the paw prints are yours and contain your food. The other dishes are mine and contain my food. Placing a paw print in the middle of my plate and food does not stake a claim for it becoming your food and dish, nor do I find that aesthetically pleasing in the slightest. The stairway was not designed by NASCAR and is not a racetrack. Racing me to the bottom is not the object. Tripping me doesn't help because I fall faster than you can run.

I cannot buy anything bigger than a king sized bed. I am very sorry about this. Do not think I will continue sleeping on the couch to ensure your comfort, however. Dogs and cats can actually curl up in a ball when they sleep. It is not necessary to sleep perpendicular to each other, stretched out to the fullest extent possible. I also know that sticking tails straight out and having tongues hanging out on the other end to maximize space is nothing but sarcasm.

For the last time, there is no secret exit from the bathroom! If, by some miracle, I beat you there and manage to get the door shut, it is not necessary to claw, whine, meow, try to turn the knob or get your paw under the edge in an attempt to open the door. I must exit through the same door I entered. Also, I have been using the bathroom for years - canine/feline attendance is not required.

The proper order for kissing is: Kiss me first! , then go smell the other dog or cat's butt. I cannot stress this enough..

Finally, in fairness, dear pets, I have posted the following message on the front door:

TO ALL NON-PET OWNERS WHO VISIT AND LIKE TO COMPLAIN ABOUT OUR PETS:

(1) They live here. You don't. (2) If you don't want their hair on your clothes, stay off the furniture. That's why they call it 'fur'-niture. (3) I like my pets a lot better than I like most people. (4) To you, they are animals. To me, they are adopted sons/daughters who are short, hairy, walk on all fours and don't speak clearly.

Remember, dogs and cats are better than kids because they (1) eat less, (2) don't ask for money all the time, (3) are easier to train, (4) normally come when called, (5) never ask to drive the car, (6) don't hang out with drug-using people; (7) don't smoke or drink, (8) don't want to wear your clothes, (9) don't have to buy the latest fashions, (10) don't need a gazillion dollars for college and (11) if they get pregnant, you can sell their children

Q: How fast is the fastest dog?

A: Dog speeds are somewhat controversial, because field conditions and distances, as well as methods of timing, vary considerably. Some dogs are timed by hand with a stopwatch, some digitally from a box start, and some by a car speedometer - the latter being notoriously inaccurate.

It's generally agreed that the fastest breed of dog is the Greyhound. And the fastest Greyhounds run at speeds of just under forty-two miles per hour - almost as fast as a thoroughbred racehorse.

These speedsters are notoriously quiet and could even be called lazy when they're not on the run - which is why various Greyhound adoption groups have chosen to market the dogs with the clever slogan, "Adopt a forty-mph couch potato."

Editor's Spot

What a busy couple of months we have had. The DAQ Championship Show is here already! It hardly seems like a year since we hosted the National Specialty Show - we have barely gotten over all the work. While I suspect this year's DAQ Championship Show will be a lot more low key, it will still be a great time to catch up with the Qld Dally fraternity and maybe a few from Interstate.

The weather here in Brisbane has been up to its old tricks with 1/3 of Brisbane's annual rainfall falling in 24 hours. My that was fun. While my Dals stayed warm and dry in their kennels I had water in my house from seepage through bricks, through the skylight and even in the front door. I have NEARLY finished cleaning up the mess!

So how many of you participated in the RSPCA Million Paws walk? I had a great time at the UQ Campus at St Lucia on the walk with some Dally friends. I was heartened to see how many Dalmatians turned up and how well behaved they all were. The Dals seemed to spot each other in the crowds. The stalls and exhibitions were great and I trust the RSPCA raised well needed funds.

Till next month Julie
