Secretary's Report

Hi everyone!

Well, the National has come and gone, and it is time (already) to start thinking about the Open show in September!

For those who couldn't make the National, I can only speak for myself, but we had a ball! So with that in mind, I would sincerely like to thank not just those behind the scenes who made our National such a great success, but everyone who traveled to Brisbane and supported us. As this was the first National I had been to, It was amazing to see so many dogs in one place, and to finally put some names to faces! I met some extraordinary people whom I will never forget and caught up with friends I hadn't seen for over a year! It was brilliant!

Our next General Meeting is on Tuesday night, 22 July at 7pm, and if I don't see you there, I hope we will see you at the Open Show in September!

Cheers,

Megan

Get well soon!

From all the members of the Dalmatian Association of Queensland we would like to send our best wishes to Dejonn Simon for a speedy recovery and return to her beloved Dalmatians Amber and Duke at home (Oh, yes, and to David as well of course!) Dejonn fell ill quite suddenly and is still recovering in hospital. We look forward to seeing her later in the year around the show ring again.

Welcome to the world!

In another bit of news DAQ members Rebecca & Clinton Jackson are the proud parents of Troy Angus Jackson. Rebecca always said she needed another handler, not long before we see their son running around the ring I'm sure!

Do you know of a good home? (an email recently received by the DAQ Secretary)

To Whom it may concern

I own a 3 year old female black and white desexed Dalmatian called Ruby. I purchased her in Adelaide with my partner at the time and our other dog. I have been on my own for a couple of years and Ruby and I have been plodding along.

I have just rented a property that has now back tracked on it's offer to allow dogs on the premises.

Ruby has also not been enjoying this move too well as she is used to a lot of company and likes to play with other dogs. My parents are not in a situation to have her permanently and are currently caring for her.

I am hoping that the Dalmatian Association will be able to lend a hand at helping me find Ruby a home. It breaks my heart to have to do this - but I have to think what is best for her at this time. I thought the Dalmatian Association would be a good place to find her a home with someone that understands the Dalmatian nature and will care for and love her as much as I.

Ruby needs a place where someone is at home a lot or where she can get lots of attention (I am now working over 5 days a week). She is a lovely girl and her favourite activity is eating a pigs ear tucked up in her bed.

My contact number is 0410883208, if you would like to call me we can discuss this further.

Thank you so much for your time Gemma Pulman

Editor's Spot

Many of you may have wondered "What happened to the June Dally Digest?" Well, like most of the DAQ Committee I decided to take the month off to recover from the rush and fun of the National Show. The detailed results of the conformation show are in this edition and the obedience will be in the next. Coming up in future months will also be the Judges Critique and pictures of all the show winners.

Winter has hit us now, even in Brisbane, and time to rug up the oldies for the night. Of course the youngsters don't seem to notice the cold. I have a young dal who insists on ripping off any type of dog coat I put on her and run through puddles and rain just for fun. Well, perhaps when I was young I ran through the rain with such abandon, so I let her enjoy her youth (as long as she doesn't trample mud through the house).

This week I farewelled my oldest dog, Ch Varewell Wings of Gold. At 14 years and 9 months he had come to the end and passed on peacefully. Giving a dog dignity at the end is hard for us owners, but for our dogs it is the greatest favour we can do for them; not making them suffer to the very end. He leaves behind many children and grand children, who will always remind me of the gentle dog that he was. Farewell Wings!

Till next month Julie
