14. I will not sell or donate any Dalmatian to Commercial Dog Wholesalers, Retail Pet Dealers or directly or indirectly allow them to be given as prizes in contests of any kind or for any purpose that may lead to their exploitation.

This Code of Ethics establishes a standard of conduct to be recommended to all members of the Dalmatian Clubs throughout Australia in the normal course of Owning, Breeding, Exhibiting, Selling and Judging Dalmatians.

Breeding represents a great responsibility to each individual, as he or she can either upgrade or nullify many years of conscientious effort. The breeder must be aware of this responsibility.

Discrimination and intelligent breeding programs can only improve the problems of the breed. Breeding is to enhance the positive qualities and cannot be expected to cover up serious faults before a commitment is made.
