ASSISTANT SECRETARIES REPORT.

Bring on the 15th Dalmatian National! At the writing of this we only have 206 sleeps till this big event. We are busy writing letters to potential sponsors, getting loads of rejections, but hey if you don't ask, you don't know. Happy to say EZY DOG came on board this week and are donating some new products from their 2015 range, can't wait to see what the postie brings. If you have anyone you know, or a company that may want to sponsor our event please email me ideas or names of contacts via Toni at dagsec@bigpond.com.

We are getting trophy's and ribbons sorted. Soon we will have order forms available for you to order some fabulous merchandise. (Thanks to Danni and the Bush Dog Embroidery team). Can't believe all the Committee's hard work and planning is finally coming together to create such a fun Dally loving event. Considering we only had conformation that we had the National about 12mths ago, we are going great. Thanks to everyone who is contributing to this event. Natasha.

CONGRATULATIONS!

A hearty congratulations to one of our members David Staines on attaining his All Breeds Judges Licence.

David and his wife Marilyn started showing Dalmatians in 1976 and then started breeding under the "LITEFLITE" prefix. They have also shown and bred Bullmastiffs.

David's successes have included Best in Show awards at All Breeds, Specialty, National Specialty and both Toowoomba and Brisbane Royals.

He has judged extensively throughout Australia and New Zealand and has been involved in the education of judges in Dalmatians, Bullmastiffs and Group 7.

David completed Championship judging status in 5 groups 15 years ago and has now finished off his last 2 groups to achieve his All Breeds licence.

EDITORS SPOT!

In this issue we have part 2 of the interview with Lisa Davis' I find this interview really fascinating to read as 101 Dalmatians is one of my favourite Disney movies of all time. The next issue of Dally Digest will have the final instalment of the interview. Check out Part 2 on Page 6.

We are also pleased to announce our new DAQ Website is now LIVE, to find out more, check out Page 7!

This issue isn't as big as some previous issues of the Digest, but I do hope you enjoy it.

On a personal note, the last few weeks have been a very trying time for my family & I. My beautiful Dalmatian, Archie, passed away late October, he wasn't quite 5 years old. I am very appreciative of the support I have received from the Dalmatian community.

*Until next issue,
Samantha.*

My heart belongs to a Dalmatian

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A DOG WITH SPOTS,
TO LIFT YOUR SPIRITS HIGH.
I KNEW THAT FROM THE MOMENT
A DALMATIAN CAUGHT MY EYE.

ACTIVE & ADVENTUROUS,
A DOG THAT LOVES TO PLAY.
AFFECTIONATE, DEVOTED,
& PROTECTIVE- COME WHAT MAY.

SHARING FUN THROUGHOUT THE DAY,
OR BY MY SIDE AT NIGHT-
I CAN'T IMAGINE LIFE WITHOUT MY FRIEND, MY BLACK & WHITE.

RESCUE REPORT

Smudge: Smudge came to us from the AWL and is a true Rescue, not just a rehome. She came to the AWL Ipswich Shelter. AWL couldn't home her as she didn't like to be around any other dogs. Smudge is a lovely 6yo smiley girl who has been in foster care with us for the last 7 weeks. Smudge in that time has learnt to respect fences, and get along with other dogs. Smudge has also now has a waist and has lost all the "loving" she must have had before she got lost and put into a shelter. Eileen has done a fabulous job with Smudge and I would like to thank her for taking Smudge on when her first foster home found it too much. Smudge has loads of personality and is ready to go to her new home. (Kids ok, Cats a maybe) If you know of anyone who may like to give Smudge a new home please give them my details.

"Pongo" (5yo Black spot entire male) We were contacted by another rescue group to see if we could take on Pongo from a shelter in Tamworth. Pongo has some behavioural issues and is very underweight (only 21.7kg). During this time I was contacted by someone in Beerburrum who could foster Pongo, with the promise of if it all works out, he can stay with them. So temporary accommodation was arranged in Tamworth, until transportation to Sunny Queensland. We have an NDN (National Desexing Network) voucher to have him neutered, and as soon as he gains some more weight he will have this operation done. So far he is loving his new family and has a husky mix and a few children to play with. he is very high energy and we hope to see him in an obedience class soon.

Jackson, keep a look out for his story in the next issue, he was a rehome, 5yo Black spot male who only lasted 24 hours on our books.

Please pass Smudge's details on as she needs to find her forever family soon. or "share" her profile from the DAQ Facebook page for others to see.

Natasha.

AN INTERVIEW WITH LISA DAVIS,
THE VOICE AND MODEL FOR
101 DALMATIANS'
ANITA RADCLIFF.

Have people ever heard you speak and recognised your voice from the movie?

Yes, they do, and sometimes I will be out and people say, "I've heard your voice before!" and all I have to say is, "It's teatime, Roger, it's teatime, darling," and they say, "Oh, it's 101 Dalmatians!" And then they bring a child over and they say, "Do you know who this lady is?" and the little child will say no, and they say, "Will you say that again?" and I say, "It's teatime, Roger," and they say, "Oh, it's Anita, it's Anita!" and I say yes. I think that's my most famous line, "It's teatime, Roger".

How was it showing the film to your children and letting them know that their mother is the voice of a Disney character?

Oh, it was endlessly wonderful. I mean, first it was my children, and now it's my grandchildren. Recently the Walt Disney studio showed the movie at the El Capitan Theatre on Hollywood Boulevard there, and we had a lovely big screening. I had my little 3-year-old grandchild in the audience and it was the first time she'd actually seen it on the big screen. And she just said, "That's you, Nana, that's you, Nana!" and I said, "Yes, sweetie, it is."

Just recently, the studio sent me over a very, very big stuffed Pongo, and she simply plays with it every night. she says, she speaks very well, "101 Dalmatians, Nana!" and I say, "Yes, honey." So you can't imagine what that means, there's not much that you can do in life that has the longevity of something like that. You know, in life you can look back at pictures of yourself, you can have pictures that you took, but to have something that you can put up on the screen or something that you can pop into the DVD player and see it, it's probably the greatest gift I've ever had. I'm so pleased I was able to tell Mr. Disney that he'd made a mistake (laughs).

What is your fondest memory of being a part of 101 Dalmatians?

I think my fondest memory is that when I was first cast, for about one month, they would bring me to the studio every day and put me into a little bungalow, which even now still remains on the lot. And they would bring in litters of dalmatian puppies for me to play with. And I would play... I mean, what a lovely job just to sit there playing with puppies all day. That was the nicest part. We had a lot of dalmatians on the set, but these were specifically puppies. And Mr. Disney wanted me to get to know the personality of the dalmatian, and that's why they brought me in to play with puppies every day.

Check out the next issue of the Dally Digest for the last instalment of Lisa Davis' interview.

BUDWEISER'S ELITE & KING!

Michael Gaughan, owner of South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa in Las Vegas hosted a special game of blackjack this week with Elite, one of Budweiser's world-famous Clydesdales; King, a Budweiser's iconic Dalmatian; and Ryan Growney, a general manager of South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa.

Following Elite's procession through South Point, Gaughan, Growney, Elite and King sat down for a spirited hand of blackjack in which all four came away as winners after a dealer bust. In the excitement of the table win, King decided to jump onto the table, bringing cheers from the surrounding crowd.

BLAST FROM THE PAST;

JOKE IN DALLY DIGEST – 2000

An old woman saved a fairy's life, the fairy promised to grant the old woman three wishes. For the first wish the old lady asked to be young and beautiful. POOF! She was young and beautiful. For the second wish, the old lady asked to be the richest woman in the world. POOF! She was the richest woman in the world.

For the last wish, she pointed at the dog she had kept for years. She asked that he be turned into the most handsome man on earth. After all, he had been her best friend for so many years. POOF! The fairy turned her dog into the handsomest man on earth. The lady and the fairy said their goodbyes.

After the fairy left, the handsome man strolled over to the young and beautiful lady and asked, "Now – aren't you sorry you had me neutered?"
